

Course Outcome and Program specific outcome

Course Outcomes (Post Graduate)

Class	Course title	Course outcome
M.A I	Personality Perspective and classical theories of personality	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Explain basic concept and aspect of personality, emotion and motivation. 2) Describe personality theories and its implementation in daily life. 3) Explore knowledge of personality theories and concepts. 4) Help other peoples for personality development.
M.A I	Cognitive psychological process	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Describe basic concept and methods of cognitive psychology. 2) Understand theories of learning in cognitive psychology. 3) Apply cognitive science in daily life.
M.A I	Psychological testing	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Understand basic concept and process of psychological test. 2) Describe process of construction and development of psychological test. 3) Explain method of statistical analysis. 4) Understand statistical method and technique. 5) Understand fundamental theories and concepts about statistics in psychology.
M.A I	Research methodology in psychology	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Describe concept, steps and techniques of research methodology. 2) Understand and prepared for scientific research. 3) Able to do field work, and research work.
M.A I	Psychology practical	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Understand concepts, methods and fields of psychological testing. 2) Explain administration, scoring, interpretation and report writing of psychological test. 3) Able to evaluate and predict of human behavior through the psychological testing. 4) Able to apply psychological test result for guidance and counseling. 5) Understand psychological phenomenon in daily life. 6) Identify experimental processes, methods , interpretation and its application in human life.

Class	Course title	Course outcome
M.A II	Advanced Social Psychology	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Describe basic concepts, theories and methodologies of social psychology. 2) Identify causes and consequences of social behavior. 3) Aware about social problems, modern concepts and their

		solution. 4) Application of social psychology in the different modes of life.
M.A II	Experimental psychology	1) Administer psychological experiments. 2) Describe the concepts of experimental psychology.
M.A II	Psychology of mental disorder	1) Gains/Analyze skills required for diagnosis of psychopathological conditions. 2) Describe different perspectives and models related to mental illness and dysfunctional behavior. 3) Identify various mental disorders.
M.A II	Psycho-diagnostics theory	1) Explain psycho-diagnostics procedures. 2) Describe psychopathology and psychotherapies
M.A II	Health psychology	1) States psychological aspects of health 2) Describe nature, importance and need for health psychology.
M.A II	Research Methodology	1) Describe basic research concepts, and methods of research methodology. 2) Explain steps in research process. 3) Able to make research projects.
M.A II	Psychopathology	1) Analyze skills required for diagnosis of psychopathological conditions. 2) Describe different perspectives and models related to mental illness and dysfunctional behavior. 3) Identify various mental disorder.
M.A II	Psycho-diagnostics theory	1) Describe theories of psycho-diagnostics. 2) Explain psycho-diagnostics procedures. 3) Describe psychopathology and psycholtherapies.