Prof. Jotsana Owade explained that, Counselling skills are interpersonal and technical traits that a counsellor uses to better understand and listen to their clients. Using these skills, a counsellor helps client overcome obstacles that are preventing them from leading a happy life. Prof. Jotsana Owade said that, a counseling student is taught to feel well, think well, and act well. By feeling well, a therapist can relate well and empathize with clients. Thinking well means to think critically, to conceptualize the client in theoretical terms, and to demonstrate good academic skills. Effective counseling skills are vital in forming a strong alliance between the client and therapist.
