Psychology department and IQAC jointly arranged a guest lecture on the College, on 10/10/ 2022. The program was chaired by Dr. P. N. Tayde . The keynote speaker of this program is Dr. Purva Manrekar (Psychiatrist, Civil Hospital, Jalgaon and Mr. Daulat Nimse (Counselor- Jalgaon)

- Dr. Purva Manrekar explained that, in this year 2022, the World Mental Health Day Theme is "Making Mental Health & Well-Being for All a Global Priority". Every year, World Federation for Mental Health comes up with a specific theme on mental health issues with informational toolkits and guidelines for the public to organize various mental health-related campaigns with an aim to deliver awareness information to every section of society and peacefully appeal to the local and global decision-makers to seriously look into these issues to provide better facilities and support to tackle it.. Mr. Daulat Nimse said that, In today's fast paced era, everyone faces stress. Very few of them recover from mental stress. Neglecting mental health can lead to mental health problems ranging from stress, depression, anxiety to hysteria, dementia and phobias. 'World Mental Health Day' is celebrated on 10th October to make the world understand the importance of mental health and also to raise public awareness. It helps to create awareness among people about mental health.

Dr. A.B. Patil, introduced the Program. Ku. Madhuri Sali anchored of the program. M.A.II students Diksha salve thanked behalf of the lecture. To make this program a success, Prof. J. J. Palekar worked hard.
