Annual Report : Hostel Committee (2023-2024)

Accommodation and Infrastructure:

In the academic year 2023-24, 42 rooms of the hostel building were allocated for accommodation, housing 150 female students. The hostel continues to provide quality lodging facilities to college students. CCTV cameras were installed near the entrance and in the canteen to ensure safety and security. Plans are underway to explore additional improvements for the year 2024-25.

Food Arrangements:

Since 2020-21, the mess services have been managed by the organization. This year, the same arrangement was continued. The meals provided are nutritious and varied:

- Morning Meal: Includes spicy vegetables, dry vegetables, dal-rice, and chapati.
- Evening Meal: Features sevbhaji, khichadi, curry, and vegetables.
- Special Feasts: Held twice a month, offering pulao, matar paneer, puri, papad, bhaje, and a sweet dish like gulab jamun or jalebi.

Fresh vegetables are sourced daily to ensure hygienic and quality meals. The mess fee for the year was Rs. 2,000 per month.

Academic and Management Support:

Regular meetings were organized to ensure regular study habits among students. Block representatives actively assisted in hostel management.
